	Barnes Wagon Train?			Full Name	Age	DOB	Profession	POB	Sex	Rejected because	First Settlers ?	1854 Tax List?	1855 Jurors?
Order		Dwell	Fam
Explanation: This list attempts to identify the people who migrated on the "Barnes" wagon train from Tarrant Co, TX to El Monte, Los Angeles Co, CA in 1859. This list contains all the names of the 1860 Federal census of El Monte, Los Angeles Co, CA as a starting point. Then each name is assessed for being a name that was on the "Barnes" wagon train. The following criteria is used to make the assessment:
Rejected Names: The following criteria was used to automatically reject names:
1	Names representing people who were in El Monte prior to 1859 are automatically rejected These names are determined by the fact that one or more of the family's children was born in the state of California or Arizona prior to 1859.
2	Names representing Mexican Americans living in El Monte are automatically rejected These names are determined by one or more of the family members being born in Mexico.
Positive Attributes: The following criteria were considered positive attributes for being on the "Barnes" wagon train.
1	Tarrant Co Name: Names of people whose family names can be traced to Tarrant Co, TX such as being in the "First Settlers", the 1854 Tax List or the 1855 Jurors List.
2	Young Male Laborers: Names of single young men working as laborors (non-property owners) and living with other families (i.e., it would be natural that a young man who recently migrated to be working as a farm laborer).
3	Proximity: Names of people who are living near people who are known to have been on the "Barnes" wagon train (i.e., it would be natural that families who migrated together would live near each other in El Monte).
4	Texas Heritage: Names whose family has children that were born in Texas.
Classification: The following terms were used to classify the names as being on the "Barnes" wagon train.
1	"Yes" - if the person was known to have been on the "Barnes" wagon train
2	"Likely" - Designates a person who seems likely to have been on the "Barnes" wagon train. Included in this category are:
		Names whose family lives in close proximity to a known family that was on the "Barnes" wagon train.
		People born in Texas or Missouri whose family name can be traced to Tarrant Co, TX.
		Young men who are laborers and whose family name can be traced to Tarrant Co, TX.
3	"Maybe" - Designates a person who has a few positive attributes for being on the "Barnes" wagon train.
		Young men who are laborers and who were born in Texas or Missouri
		People in families who have young children (under 10 years old) who were born in Texas.
Note - once a person is classified using the above then each member of the person's family is given the same designation.
