up & said he had had all the Mum-nousee he would have & would put a deed to it, he went to the bureau & got a pistol & snapped it at me, at least the children raised up & screaming & said he did

Q 12 How many times did he draw the revolver on you

A 12 I cant say exactly but several times. About time he commanded me to sew buttons on our son Eddy's shoes and jerked his revolver over from over the window and said I could not live if I did not put the buttons on. I sewed them on as soon as I could he appeared to be very angry & violent. Eddy & Jennie Switzen heard him

Q 13 Where is Jennie Switzen now

A 13 Ift Springfield Sick with typhoid fever

Q 14 What occurred about
