

Mary A. Pyles, Deceased. }
Application to sell lands —

February 26, 1900

This being the day heretofore appointed to hear and determine the petition heretofore filed by J. F. McNeal, administrator of the Estate of Mary A. Pyles, deceased, for an order to sell certain lands hereinafter described for the purpose of division and distribution among the heirs and distributees of said Estate, upon the ground that said lands cannot be fairly and Equitably divided among said heirs and distributees without a sale thereof, said day being not less than thirty days from the time of making said application, now comes the said administrator and moves the court that said application be granted; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from further evidence that due notice of the filing of said application and that the same would this day be heard and determined has been duly given and that Mrs. Pyles, Sallie Cates and her husband James Cates, Elgin Pyles, adult heirs and distributees residing in this state have been duly notified of the filing of said application and of the day set for hearing the same by citations issued and duly served upon them not less than ten days before this day, and that William Pyles and Wood Pyles, Sallie Pyles, — Fulmer, and Henry Pyles, Ed. Pyles, Dan Pyles, Mary Pyles, and Alice Pyles, and James Fulmer, husband of — Fulmer, have been duly notified of said application and of the day set for hearing said the same, by publication ^{for the necessary cause} of a notice to them directed in the Harpersville Hustler a newspaper published in said Floyd County, and thereby brought into court according to law, the court now proceeds to hear said application.

And it appearing to the court from the allegations contained in said application and from the depositions of G. S. Bradford and D. G. Fulmer, disinterested witnesses taken upon interrogatories and submitted by the petitioner as in Chancery cases, which depositions are ordered to filed and recorded, that the lands mentioned and described in said application
