

Tract, containing One hundred and ten acres more or less in Jefferson County, Alabama. Can not be fairly and equitably divided among said heirs and distributees and that a sale thereof is therefore necessary for the purpose of making such division and distribution among the said heirs and distributees it is therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that said application be granted and the said Administrator is hereby ordered to sell said lands to the highest bidder, ^{in Spring} Harmony Church precinct No 30 in said Flomut County, on the 21st day of April 1900, after first giving notice of the time, place and terms of sale and a description of the property by publication for three successive weeks in the Hanceville Herald, a newspaper published in said County. And that he sell the lands in Jefferson County, Alabama to the highest bidder, at public vendue, after first giving notice of the time, place and terms of sale together with a description of the property by publication ^{and a report} for three successive weeks in the Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Birmingham Jefferson County, Alabama, (said sale to be made at Postridge Cross Roads in Jefferson County -) It is further ordered that said sales be made on the following terms, to wit: One third of the purchase money in cash, the balance on a credit until the first day of November, 1900, with interest from date, secured by notes with at least two good and sufficient sureties.